Cambridgeshire Hearing Help enjoys the full support of NHS Audiology and Cambridgeshire County Council Sensory Services Department

December 2015

Are you straining to hear the doorbell or television?

Do you struggle with wearing your new hearing aids?

Do you need replacement batteries and hearing aid maintenance close to home?

Make sure you and your family get the support you need, either at our Drop-in Hearing Help Sessions or in your own home.

Just drop into one of your local sessions or contact the office. All our services are completely free to NHS hearing aid users.

CAMBRIDGESHIRE HEARING HELP

Do you want to find out about equipment to improve your hearing?

Cambridgeshire Hearing Help offers advice on equipment such as amplified telephone and TV listeners. We can lend you equipment to 'try before you buy'.

Would you like to join a group supporting people with hearing loss?

Cambridgeshire Hearing Help is a contact point for the Cambridge Hard of Hearing Club and the Cambridge Tinnitus Support Group.

Do you run a group with people who are hard of hearing?

Cambridgeshire Hearing Help offers informal talks to discuss hearing loss and to explain how to get the best out of hearing aids and other hearing help equipment.

Are you a carer for someone with hearing loss?

Cambridgeshire Hearing Help can train you to identify problems with hearing and hearing aids and to develop strategies for managing hearing loss.

Would you like your company or organisation to be more sensitive to the needs of people with hearing problems?

Cambridgeshire Hearing Help offers deaf awareness training for those who deal with the public generally or with older people. We also provide in-house training by arrangement.

HEARING HELP SESSIONS

Drop into your local Hearing Help Sessions where you can receive advice, free NHS replacement batteries and maintenance for your hearing aid.
